SHINER, TEX., THU., NOV. 9th, '93.

To the Lockhart Register, La-Grange Journal and Beeville Bee: You have been lamentably remiss in exchanging with us of late. Be a little more punctual can't you?

For column or so of editorial paragraphs that appear from week in the Luling Signal are enough to rein the reputation of the state.
The fungous, periphrastic monstrosity that hews out the local and editorial matter on the Signal with a broad-ax is named off-color.

One dollar is extracted is exacted from all scholars in the city schools as an incidental fee. Wood, water and other articles must be paid for.
This is a small fee and should be promptly paid. In the schools there are a number of scholars who have not paid and unless the amount is forthcoming by tomorrow evening they will be dropped from the rolls.—Luling Signal.

And this in Texas. For Heaven's sake let us pass around the hat and take up a collection to send a missionary out to those benighted heathens, residing in the wilds and fastnesses of Luling. Free schools ought to be free schools the country over and none but savages would adopt such practices as the above.

It is sometimes amusing for a newspaper man who has spent fifteen or twenty, or perhaps more years of his life in the newspaper business to read the embryonic editorial of the young editor who starts out to astonish the world with his brilliant productions of deep thought and careful study.
See what great opportunities his attention to himself can reap. The dash of pride that assaults his face when his paper is quoted and he is referred to as "Editor Quixote," the talented young writer of the Blau-veltian Windbag.—Lockhart Populist.

Come, come, Sam, don't let the boys down so hard. You must remember the time when you first started out to revolutionize the universe and write your name on the scroll of fame through the columns of a five column, all-homesprint country newspaper.

After a careful reading of the leading papers of the country, the Editor has reached the conclusion that our national affairs are shamefully mismanaged, through the incompetency of senators and representatives, and that the government should be placed in the hands of the able editors, who alone know how the thing should be done.— Kerrville Paper.

Why, of course, brother Smallwood, Editors are the only men who know anything. Other people merely know what the editors are a mind to tell them now and then.
There can be no question but what a few such men as John Hardwick, Jr., Lee Countess, Bruce Roberts and yourself, for instance, were only put at the head of the government the numerous twists and kinks now existing in national affairs would soon be straightened out.

—Bonz.—Mr. C. F. Richter came down town Monday morning stepping high like an old war horse when he smells powder. "What's the matter, Charley?" said the Gazette man anxiously, "have you drawn $15,000 in a lottery?"
"Lottery nothing," said Charley, "I've got a great big girl up at my finger and she's fat and mighty good looking, just like her daddy.
Come on, let's make something."

The New Era of Hallettsville, it is said, will make its debut December 1, next, "tricked out in a new uniform and fighting under strange colors," and will launch its barge on the bosom of the (so called Dead) sea of the fractional party. E. O. Meitzen will guide its destiny and its remains to be seen whether a "New Era" of life will soon spring up in waste places.
—Platonia Argus.

We presume that the above will mean the retirement of Wm. Blake-lee from the active duties of newspaper work a circumstance that we will very much regret as we have come to hold Mr. Blake-lee in high regard and esteem. We have found him to be a man of honor and we will regard his retirement like that of Will Mair's as a positive misfortune to the newspaper fraternity.

Social at Louis Trautwein's.

Mr. Trautwein's home in the north part of town Tuesday night was the scene of revelry by night and the beauty and chivalry were there. Tuesday was Mrs. Trautwein's birthday and during the afternoon a large number of her friends called to pay their respects and at night a season of general good humor, games and fun was inaugurated in honor of Miss Emma Schaefer who is spending a few days visiting in Shiner as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Trautwein. The ladies who added to the attraction of the occasion were Misses Henrietta Richter, Isabel Wendland, Hilda Jungbecker, Leonora Richter, Selma and Emma Miller, Tennie Lick, Nannie Nolan, Clara Littlefield and Miss Schaefer. The gentlemen were Alfred Jungbecker, Charles Welhausen, Charles Amler, Gus Robinson, Rufus Littlefield, Erwin Wendland, S. H.
Newton, G. W. Eschenburg, E. O. and B. H. Smith, Oscar Daniels and C. W. Ward. Mrs. Charles Schaefer, sr. and Mrs. Charles Schaefer, jr. were also present as Mr. and Mrs. Trautwein's guests.
Lemonade and cakes were served about eleven o'clock and all united in proclaiming Mr. and Mrs.
Trautwein the kindest and best of hosts.

Legal Robbery.

Captain Mac Walker, a prominent cattleman living just across the Guadalupe river about eight miles west of Shiner, returned from Waco Monday where he had been in attendance at district court.
From him the Gazette man learned of the facts concerning one of the greatest wrongs ever perpetrated in a court of justice. The Captain had sold A. C. Riddle & Co. of Waco 1200 head of cattle and the amount due him on the sale aggregated $92,000. Riddle & Co. had a counter bill for damages and the case came up for trial in the district court at Waco, before Judge Woodrich. The jury returned a verdict awarding the captain $30,- 000 and allowed the counter bill filed by Riddle & Co. for damages and the Captain was allowed $321, which he very properly refused to receive and will appeal the case.
$321 would be a magnificent sum for 1200 head of cattle.

A Tough Old Veteran.

Mr. A. N. Bellamy of Hochheim dropped in at the Gazette office Saturday. We got to quizzing him about his age and guessed it to be forty-four. Mr. Bellamy paralyed us by stating that he was born the 21st day of December, 1828 and is therefore sixty-five years old. He said he would run a foot race with any man in Lavaca, Gonzales or DeWitt counties and from all appearances we believe he would have a good chance to win the race. He was born in Hamilton county, Georgia and moved to Texas about twelve years ago. For the last eight years he has been a resident of the vicinity of Hochheim. As the editor's birthday falls on Dec.
21st also, we suggest to Mr. Bellamy that he come up to Shiner on that day and we will take in the town in company.

Notice.

All those knowing themselves indebted to me will please come forward and settle by Nov. 15th as I need money to close up my business.
Settle with either me or J. H.
Hochner at the Biemack saloon,

Charley Pfeil Married.

Charley Pfeil returned Saturday with his wife, formerly Miss Louisa Schultz of Cuero. Invitations had been sent out broadcast and Saturday night his friends gathered at the Knights of Pythias hall and danced until the clock pointed to twelve o'clock. Music was furnished by the Shiner band and the young people were out in force. All present united in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Pfeil every happiness and the occasion demonstrated the fact that Charley is one of the most popular young men in Shiner.

A RETIRED BUSINESS WOMAN.

A Page From Her History.

"The most interesting experience of others, are interesting to me. The following is no exception.
I had been troubled with heart disease 23 years, much of that time very seriously. For some years I was treated by one physician continuously. I was in business, but obliged to retire on account of my health. A physician told my friends that I could not live a month. My feet and hands were badly swollen, and I was indeed in a serious condition.
When a gentleman directed my attention to Dr. Allen's New Heart Cure, and said that his sister, who had been afflicted with heart disease, had been cured by the remedy, and was again a strong, healthy woman, I purchased a bottle of the Heart Cure, and in less than an hour after taking the first dose I could feel a decided improvement in the circulation of my blood. When I had taken three doses I could move my ankles, something I had not done for months and my limbs had been swollen so long that they seemed almost paralyzed.
Before I had taken one bottle of the New Heart Cure the swelling had all gone down, and I was much better than I felt my own work. On my recommendation six others are taking this valuable remedy."—Mrs. Margaret W. Harrison of Chicago, Ill.
